The SHC Youth Leadership and Scholarship Program provides scholarships and support to youth who have experienced homelessness to ensure their completion of a post-secondary education program. This year, we will offer at least ten scholarships of $2,000 each; travel and expenses paid for all recipients to a national awards ceremony; and travel and expenses paid to a second gathering in Washington DC, two years after the initial scholarship award. Applications will be accepted until November 8, 2017.
