The SAT[®] is a fair and straightforward test.

It looks a lot like what you're learning in class and focuses on what you'll actually use in college.

Here's what you can expect on the SAT:

No Guessing Penalty

Straightforward scoring — on the SAT you just get points on the questions you answer correctly.

Optional Essay

Check the admission policies at universities and decide whether to take the optional SAT Essay.

Everyday Words

The vocabulary is closer to what you'll come across often in college classes.

Essential Math

The SAT tests the math you'll need no matter what major or career you choose.

The 2017-18 SAT Calendar

Most students take the SAT for the first time in the spring of their junior year. After more coursework and practice, students increase their skills and test again in the fall of their senior year.

* Sunday tests are given the next day.

 Deadlines expire at 11:59 p.m. U.S. E.T.
